

Dear All,

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for LDS members' prompt response and cooperation for conducting the first ever election to be held for the LDS.

I believe this is a step forward and I would encourage you all to participate in every way or shape to help the LDS prosper and serve the Libyan community in the UK & I and in Libya. It is history in the making and you showed responsiveness and maturity by either casting votes or abstaining.

Therefore, without further a do, and by the power invested in me by LDS, I can declare that the winners for the positions namely, Council and Scientific Committee are as follows.

For a position on the Council

1. Dr Naji BARAKAT (38%)
2. Dr Amer AZAZ (25.5%)
3. Dr Rajab KERWAT (25%)
4. Dr Saleh EL-GADI (14.1%)

For a position on the Scientific Committee

1. Dr AbdulRazak SHLEBAK (26.1%)
2. Dr Salem BESHYA (18%)
3. Dr Hani BEN AMER (14.1%)
4. Dr Saleh ELMANSOURI (9%)

This concludes the election results. I wish all of the nominees the best and wish those who are elected to be serving on either of the positions the best.

This election result was composed this day the 2nd of MARCH 2006. These results are final and all the proceedings were confidential

Declaration:

I ABOUBAKER LASEBAE (Election Officer) declare that the nomination and election process were conducted according to the constitution of LDS and that I had no pressure or interference from any member of LDS. I also declare that the results are a true reflection of the ballot forms received and no manipulation or changes were exercised.
